

Manufacturing Leaders Speak Out in Chicago

The AIM Expo, Nov. 1-3 in Chicago, IL has engaged the leading industry experts and end-users for a complete showcase of auto ID & mobile IT solutions for manufacturing. Learn how you, too, can capitalize on diverse enterprise-wide data collection and information sharing to improve operations, streamline production, increase performance, and enhance overall business processes.

Hear from the following distinguished faculty members, among others:

Dr. Pat King
Global Electronics
Strategist
Michelin

Kenneth Porad
*Associate Technical Fellow/
Program Manager,*
The Boeing Company

Denton Clark
AIT Manager
Logistics & Sustainment
Lockheed Martin

Morris Brown
PMP, Program Manager,
SCM
AIAG

Who Should Attend?

- Application & Systems Engineers
- Asset/Facility/Plant/Property Managers
- Financial Management/Analysts
- Program/Project Managers
- Senior Executives
- Supply Chain & Operations Management

Vertical Market Education – in-depth look at government, healthcare, retail and manufacturing case studies that share the latest information about solutions that are delivering real results.

General Sessions – providing practical insight on critical considerations to enhance your business processes.

Solutions Showcase – see and touch solutions to streamline processes, achieve successful implementations, and maintain expected levels of compliance

Networking – no event would be complete without connecting partners, customers, and industry experts – AIM is noted for its networking value!

www.AIM-Expo.com

AIM Expo Sponsors include: BlueStar, Datalogic, Motorola, ScanSource, TAGSYS, Datamax-O'Neil, Lockheed Martin's Savi Technology, and REA Elektronik GmbH